FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lexington Police Department 8th Citizen's Academy Graduates Class

(Lexington) The Lexington Police Department graduated the spring 2010 class of its Citizen's Academy on Tuesday, May 11, 2010. The ceremony was held at 7:00 p.m. in the Palmetto Collegiate Hall located at 204 Hendrix Street. Dr. Karen Woodward, ED.D, Lexington School District One Superintendent, delivered the commencement address.

The purpose of The Citizen's Academy is to provide an opportunity for citizens to learn more about police operations and to build a stronger relationship between the community and the department. The academy ran for nine consecutive weeks on Tuesday nights between the hours of 7:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. The classes were held at the Lexington Police Department's training facility with some off site locations. The course instruction was administered by police department personnel. The curriculum included an overview of police operations and organization, introduction to community oriented policing, patrol functions, criminal investigations, narcotics and many other aspects of the department.

For more information , please contact Corporal Doug Lee at 358-1504 or 359-6260 .
