LEXINGTON POLICE DEPARTMENT WILL INCREASE TRAFFIC ENFORCEMENT

(Lexington, South Carolina) The Lexington Police Department will be increasing traffic enforcement on the roadways in the Town of Lexington during the month of July.

The Lexington Police Department will be increasing patrols on roadways in an effort to reduce Traffic Collisions. Officers will be looking for Speeding, Disregarding Traffic Control Devices, and Aggressive Driving. These actions are a leading cause of accidents on our roadways. The primary aim of Traffic Enforcement is to reduce traffic collisions, injuries, and deaths through fair, impartial, and reasonable enforcement of Traffic Laws.

The Lexington Police Department is committed to ensuring safer roadways for its citizens and visitors through enforcement and education. For additional information please contact Chief Green at (803) 359-6260.
