L.P.D. "FREE FAN PROGRAM" GIVES FANS FOR RESIDENTS IN NEED

Lexington, S.C. (May 13, 2016) – As the warmest months of the year approach, the Lexington Police Department would like to remind everyone about their ongoing "Free Fan Program".

If you are in need of a fan to stay cool during the hot summer days, and are a citizen of the Town of Lexington, please come to the Lexington Police Department for assistance. The Lexington Police Department is able to provide new portable box style fans due to donations that are made throughout the year to this ongoing program.

Chief Terrence Green said, "The Lexington Police Department has offered the "Free Fan Program" for a number of years to assist those in our community who may not be able to stay cool otherwise. This program has been made possible from the generous support of those in our community with both individuals and businesses making donations of fans to keep it going."

The Lexington Police Department is accepting donations of new box style fans to continue this program and all donated fans must be new and in original packaging. In-kind donation forms are available for donations to this program through the Lexington Police Department Adopt-A-Cop fund. The In-kind donation form includes a tax identification number for tax deduction purposes.

Fans can be picked up at the Lexington Police Department during business hours at 111 Maiden Lane in Lexington. Community Action Team (C.A.T.) members are available to assist citizens who need a fan dropped off at their residence. An acceptance and release of liability form is completed for all fans that are given away through this program.
