Robbery Suspect with Unique Tattoo

Lexington, SC (March 27, 2012, 09:00) – The Lexington Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in identifying an armed robbery suspect.

At approximately 8:15 pm on March 16, 2012 an unknown white male subject approached the victim in the parking lot of a convenience store located at 911 South Lake Drive in the Town of Lexington. The subject approached the victim from behind, presented a handgun and demanded the victim's wallet. The victim was unable to get a good look at the subject's face however did observe that the subject had a tattoo on his left arm and was able to describe such for a forensic artist.

Lexington Police Chief Terrence Green believes that the public will be instrumental in bringing this subject to justice. "This is a very unique tattoo and someone, somewhere will be able to recognize it and identify the person who has it. We urge anyone with any information to contact us to help capture this offender."

If you are able to identify these individuals please contact the Lexington Police Department at 803-359-6260 or Crimestoppers at 1-888-CRIMESC, you can remain anonymous. Because of the nature of this crime a reward most certainly would be offered. Tips can also be sent electronically via text message or an online form which can be found at <http://www.midlandscrimestoppers.com/>.
