New Person of Interest in CVS Robbery

Lexington, SC (June 05, 2012, 14:30) – The Lexington Police Department continues to seek the public's assistance in identifying persons believed to be involved in the armed robbery of a local pharmacy back on May 13.

Investigation since that time has revealed a second male subject who was present in the CVS during the robbery. Investigators are attempting to identify this individual for further questioning and he is only a person of interest at this time. This person is a white male, believed to be in his 20's, medium build with shaved dark hair.

At approximately 10:33 pm on May 13, 2012, the suspect entered the CVS at 5608 Sunset Boulevard and approached the pharmacy counter. During the robbery, the suspect presented a firearm and demanded prescription narcotics. He is described as a white male, 20-30 years of age, approximately 6'2" and 170lbs. The subject had a plaid book bag and was wearing an olive colored baseball cap with an unknown logo. After obtaining the narcotics he exited the store and it is believed got into a white 4-door sedan, possibly a 1990-1996 Pontiac Grand Prix, being driven by another unknown white male.

If you are able to identify these individuals or have any information concerning this crime, please contact the Lexington Police Department at 803-359-6260 or Crimestoppers at 1-888-CRIMESC, you can remain anonymous. Because of the nature of this crime a reward may be offered. Tips can also be sent electronically via text message or an online form which can be found at <http://www.midlandscrimestoppers.com/>.
