PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Lexington, South Carolina
July 25, 2013

The Lexington Police Department recently presented Melissa Silcox with the "Employee of the Quarter" award for the first quarter of 2013. Ptl. Silcox joined the department in March 2009 as a patrolman and is currently assigned to the Office of Professional Standards (OPS) Division.

Ptl. Silcox was tasked with validating all of the Lexington Police Department warrants under new NCIC standards. One nominator stated that she did so with no complaints about the process and also stayed late numerous times to make sure the work was completed. During this time she also did walk in reports and assisted the front desk.

Melissa is a tremendous asset to not only our department but to the citizens of the Town of Lexington. Chief Green stated "It is an honor to present this award to Missy. She has gone above and beyond on this project and relieved a great burden from OPS. No one has done more in so little time to achieve so much."
