NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Department Presented with Flag

Lexington, SC (June 21, 2011, 2:00 pm) – During the Town Council meeting on June 13, The Lexington Police Department was presented with a department flag to be utilized by its Honor Guard during ceremonial events. The flag, which bears the emblem of the Police Department, was made possible by donations from the "V" Sunday school class of Lexington Baptist Church as part of a new missionary project for law enforcement. Chief Terrence Green states that "without the support of the community in such endeavors, such wants of the department could not be met in today's economic times." The Police Department would like to publically thank the "V" Sunday school class and Columbia Flag and Banner for making this possible.
