Habitat for Humanity Triathlon Participants

For Immediate Release
May 22, 2013

(Lexington, SC) The Lexington Police Department would like to recognize three of their officers for their involvement in a triathlon to raise funds for Habitat for Humanity. Reserve Officer Steven Luckie, Corporal Mike Lawler and Corporal Earron Sturges participated in the Habitat for Humanity/City of Lancaster's Public Safety Officer Triathlon Challenge on May 18, 2013.

While most teams consisted of three people to each do one leg of the competition, the Lexington Police Teams entered as three teams, with each officer doing all three legs. The race consisted of a 3.1 mile run, 8 mile bike run and 300 yard swim. Steven Luckie finished second and Earron Sturges finished third out of fourteen teams. Congratulations on a job well done.
