PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Lexington, South Carolina
June 4, 2013

At the June 3, 2013 Town Council Meeting, Chief Terrence Green presented Honorary Lieutenant Awards to two very deserving individuals who have made an impact on the lives of students and Town citizens and Kenneth W. Lake, Director of the Lexington Technology Center, and Jim "Coach" Harpe, Coordinator of the Focus Program are both retiring June 30, 2013, from Lexington School District One.

Kenneth Lake has 42 years of experience as an educator with 31 of those years spent at Lexington Technology Center. He received his Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Industrial Education from Clemson University and his Administrative Specialist Degree from the University of South Carolina.

Jim Harpe has 38 years of experience as an educator, received his Bachelor's Degree and two Master's Degrees from the University of South Carolina. Many of his years have been spent in athletics as a physical education teacher, coach or athletic director and he is better known as "Coach" by students and staff.

Chief Green stated, "Both Ken and Coach have dedicated their careers to providing better educational opportunities and improving the lives of children in programs outside the regular classroom. Vocational and Alternative students and staff will certainly miss them as they retire. We are honored to make them Honorary Lieutenants of the Lexington Police Department."
