PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Lexington, South Carolina
January 14, 2011

At approximately 12:07 PM today, officers of the Lexington Police Department responded to an armed robbery at the Palmetto Citizens Federal Credit Union, located at 919 N. Lake Drive in Lexington. The subject, described as a black male with grey hair, approximately 5'6" tall, and 170 lbs. wearing a dark blue shirt and dark pants, fled the scene on foot.

Officers of the Lexington Police Department, SC Highway Patrol, SC Transport Police, and Lexington County Sheriff's Department set up a perimeter and with the assistance of LCSO K-9 Argos, tracked and captured the subject. Steven Lamonte Brown, 37, of 355 Arnold Street, Rock Hill, SC., is being charged with Armed Robbery of a Bank and is being held in the Lexington County Detention Center.

Lexington Police Chief Terrence Green would like to thank all of the officers involved for their swift response and assistance in bringing this to a quick end without any further incidents. "We appreciate the good work by the witnesses and K-9 Argos in leading our officers to apprehend the subject. To all of the officers – thanks for a job well done."

If you need further information, please contact Lt. Matt Davis of the Lexington Police Department at (803) 359-6260.
