PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 27, 2011

Lexington, South Carolina

Three individuals have been arrested in connection with several car break-ins that occurred Saturday night, June 26, 2011 in the Palmetto Hall Subdivision in the Town of Lexington. Chief Green states that Trevor John Ochocki, Edward Brandon Adams Jr, and a 16-year-old juvenile are each facing four counts of Breaking into a Motor Vehicle. In addition, Ochocki is also charged with Possession of Stolen Property.

At approximately 1:25 a.m. on June 26, officers responded to a report of three suspicious individuals pulling on car door handles inside the subdivision. Officers located the three suspects trying to exit the subdivision in a vehicle. Officers were able to locate several of the items reportedly stolen during the break-ins inside the interior of the vehicle. Both Ochocki and Adams are currently at the Lexington County Detention Center. The bond has been set at $21,093.00 for Ochocki and $20,000 for Adams. The juvenile suspect was released to his parents.

In an attempt to help prevent vehicle break-ins, the Lexington Police Department asks that all citizens lock the doors to your vehicles and remove any valuables from the vehicle. We ask that you follow these practices not only at night, but also during the daylight hours. If you notice any suspicious activity, please do not hesitate to call 911.
