FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE August 13, 2010

(Lexington, SC) Officers with the Lexington Police Department were dispatched to 144 Old Chapin Road, apartment 9E, at approximately 6:30 a.m. on August 12, 2010, in regards to a possible methamphetamine laboratory. Once on scene, the officers did observe what they believed to be an active meth lab that was in the cooking process. Agents from the Lexington County Narcotics Task Force Team were able to neutralize and dismantle the lab.

Amy Denise Shaw of 144 Old Chapin Road, 9E, Lexington, and Erica Dianne Branham of 140 Boiling Springs Lane, Lexington, were each charged with one count of Manufacturing Methamphetamines.

Agencies involved in the investigation of the incident included the Lexington Police Department, Lexington County Narcotics Task Force Team, Lexington County Emergency Service Division and Lexington County Fire Service.

For additional information, please contact Major Jay Koon of the Lexington Police Department at (803) 359-6260.
