Mayor's Message by Steve MacDougall

The Town of Lexington is proud to sponsor the Lexington County Veterans Parade. This annual event pays tribute to the men and women that have bravely served our country. This year's parade will be on Sunday, November 1, 2015 at 3pm in downtown Lexington with Grand Marshals from the Vietnam War and American Legion Post 8738. The parade concludes at the Town's Veterans Monument, where a memorial service will be held.

In addition to being actively involved in the parade, the Town of Lexington is proud to collaborate with programs serving our active duty Military. This year, the Town is working with Ding Dong Divas to promote the USO's "Operation Exodus". The program will be collecting snacks to stuff goodie bags for distribution to the more than 6,000 Fort Jackson soldiers headed home for two-week Christmas break. Detailed information is listed on Page 2 of Town Topics.

Finally, the Lexington Police Department will once again partner with the United States Marine Corps for the "Toys for Tots" Campaign. The department serves as a collection site for new, unwrapped toys. Help us once again "Fill the MRAP" and bring smiles to area children and make their Christmas morning special. Details will be forthcoming for collection dates, sites, etc. Stay informed by visiting our website at www.lexsc.com or like us on social media, Facebook and Twitter.

We look forward to seeing you at the parade and don't forget to THANK a Veteran for their service in providing our freedom.

Happy Thanksgiving to you and your family!
