

Residential Subdivision Lift Station Warranty

On September 2, 2003 Council approved extending the warranty on lift stations to one year after the final phase is permitted, but no less than the three year period that is already required.